Welcome!

Congratulations and Welcome! You have moved into a vital neighborhood with many opportunities to enjoy a high quality of life for all ages. We have the Mississippi River, good housing stock, excellent schools and parks within walking distance, bike trials, low crime rate, involved residents and more.

Neighborhood History

Lind-Bohanon was incorporated by the City of Minneapolis in 1887. Early in the neighborhood's development there were strong ties to the Mississippi River. Much of the lumber and supplies for building were brought to the area on barges and other boats. Many of the large, older homes in the community were boarding houses for people who worked in the Lind-Bohanon area. One of the major employers was a workhouse/farm located on the northern section of Lind-Bohanon.

Our community's name comes from combining the school name, Jenny Lind (named for the "Swedish Songbird" who performed for P.T. Barnum's circus for many years), with Bohanon (a family that had much influence on the establishment of the neighborhood).

The neighborhood has an urban history that begins after World War II. Most of the original residents were families of World War II veterans who...continued on page 3.....

Our Neighborhood Offers City Conveniences and Suburban Comforts

Love the night life?

Like shopping where things aren't a mile hike away and lost amidst 5,000 other shoppers?

North, south, east, or west are all conveniently accessible yet highway noise is minimal in our neighborhood. Four major highways: 694, 94, 100, and 252 connect us to our homes, work, social activities, etc. The map on page 5 shows our neighborhood as it relates to the greater Minneapolis area.

Downtown sports, theaters, art, restaurants, and various other forms of entertainment are only 6 miles south on 94E.

Brookdale Mall and several other shopping centers are quickly accessible either by the major corridors of Highway 100 or 94.

Shopping and convenience, parks and play, perks all around abound in our small corner of Minneapolis.

“All Lind-Bohanon residents are welcome to volunteer on the LBNA Board and Various Event Committees”

LBNA

The Lind-Bohanon Neighborhood Association (LBNA) organized in December 1989. LBNA is part of the City's Neighborhood Revitalization Program (NRP). NRP is a neighborhood-based planning process to help neighborhoods increase their capacity to identify and solve their own problems through partnership with government and others. In 1998, the City approved our NRP Action Plan, a five year strategy for improving our neighborhood. LBNA has a Board of Directors with a Chairperson, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary. It also has room for up to 15 members-at-large to participate on the board. The board oversees the implementation of the NRP Action Plan and is responsible for the financial and day to day operations of LBNA..

LBNA holds monthly board meetings on the first Thursday of each month, and it holds neighborhood meetings on the second Wednesday of the every other month inviting special speakers to address topics or concerns from our neighborhood. Board and neighborhood meetings are open to the public.

Please call our message line at 612-588-7641 or check our latest newsletter or our website at: www.neighborhoodlink.org/minneapolis/l-bna for the next meeting dates and times.

Mission

Our Vision for Lind-Bohanon

- ◆ To strengthen the sense of belonging and identity for our residents
- ◆ To enable our neighbors to go out without fear, and to know our homes are safe and our neighbors are watching out for us
- ◆ To take a proactive approach to maintaining resources, businesses, parks, schools, homes
- ◆ To maintain and enhance the quality of Lind-Bohanon housing by offering low-interest home improvement loan program
- ◆ To retain residents and attract new homeowners to our community
- ◆ To recognize our position as a link to the

and community as a whole, while striving to improve quality of all aspects of our area and suburbs from Minneapolis

To work with elected officials and city staff, and with surrounding communities, to minimize negative and potentially negative impacts on our neighborhood

To seek out dynamic solutions to issues involving our community

Lind-Bohanon is one of two North gateways into Minneapolis. Highway 94 carries a pulse of traffic in and out of the city daily.

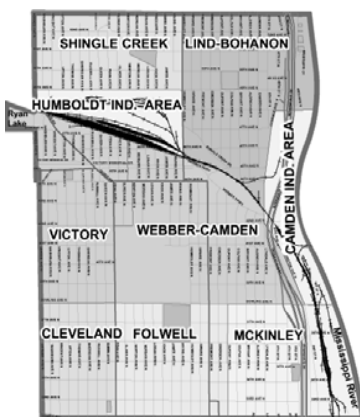

Our neighborhood within the city has a small town atmosphere where neighbors pride themselves in knowing each other and taking an active role in keeping our schools, parks, the river, and our community clean and safe. We have roughly 1800 households and roughly 4500 neighbors within our approximate 7 mile radial neighborhood according to the 2000 census.

We're easy to find from Highway 94 or Highway 100. And if you haven't traveled to our find neighborhood you'll want to soon! We have some of the last affordable housing in Minneapolis and we're one of the safest neighborhoods in Minneapolis.

There's ton to see and tons to brag about but follow the map north and come see for yourself what makes this neighborhood "Feel like home". See page 5 for full map.

NorthWest Corner of Minneapolis Neighborhoods

Parks and Perks

North Mississippi Regional Park

The mighty Mississippi gracefully flows through our neighborhood's backyard. Sitting on it's grand banks are the North Mississippi Regional Park and soon to be Interpretive Center. These have become family gathering places and resources the Lind-Bohanon neighborhood claim as three of it's greatest assets. There are bike paths that mingle and wind throughout our neighborhood and connect to the river, the creeks, and parkways. Families can jump on a six mile loop from the entrance of the North Mississippi Regional Park heading north and crossing over the 694 bridge to the eastside of the river, head south and cross back at the Camden Bridge. Or travel the parkways by heading south on the Humboldt Greenway to the Victory Memorial Parkway in neighboring Webber and Victory neighborhoods, or northwest along the Shingle Creek to nearby Brooklyn Park. There are several side parks along Shingle Creek to leisurely stroll, picnic, or play at for the day. Or if a little more space is required for the recreation in mind, try the largest park in the neighborhood is Bohanon Park at 49th and Bryant. It has softball fields, hockey rink, tennis courts, basketball courts, a tot lot and new wading pool in 2001. Our neighborhood has a gracious neighbor and natural beauty in the Mississippi River. It's an attribute not too many neighborhoods can claim!

Neighborhood Profile

Lind-Bohanon is part of the Camden Community which includes the neighborhoods of northwest Minneapolis: Victory, Shingle Creek, McKinley, Folwell, Webber-Camden and Lind-Bohanon.

Lind-Bohanon is bordered on the north by 53rd Ave N, on the east by the Mississippi River, on the south by Webber Park and the Canadian-Pacific Railroad and on the west by Humboldt Avenue.

According to the 2000 Census, Lind-Bohanon has a population of 4,448 residents in 1,768 households.

It represents 1% of the total City population. It is a working-class, residential neighborhood with 87.3% owner-occupied housing. Landmarks include the Mississippi River, North Mis-issippi Regional Park and Carl Kroening Interpretive Center, Humboldt Greenway, Lyndale and Webber-Camden business corridors, Jenny Lind Elementary School (K-5), St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic School (K-8), several churches and several parks.

*“Neighborhood Assets: North Mississippi Regional Park and Jenny Lind Elementary School”

Schools

Jenny Lind Community School was built in 1995. It is a neighborhood school in the Lind-Bohanon-Camden neighborhood. The school offers a contemporary school program serving kindergarten through fifth grade. Principal Karen Erickson has roughly 635 students, walking the halls of Jenny Lind. Approximately one-third of the students are African American, one-third are Asian American and one-third White American.

The mission of Jenny Lind is to provide students with a strong foundation in the knowledge and skills that they will need to be successful in the 21st century. This is achieved through a multifaceted, collaborative effort that includes staff, parents and community.

The student population at Jenny Lind Community School reflects the rich diversity found in the city’s population. Students and staff honor the uniqueness of each of our cultures and the values that are common to all of us. Our goal is to foster respect, understanding, and appreciation for all people.

There are many programs in place where students, parents and faculty can work together to positively influence children’s lives. Jenny Lind is such a great start for children in our neighborhood.

Minneapolis leads the nation for National Night Out Block Parties

Block Clubs

Block Club Leaders provide our community with an active network connecting our neighborhoods with each other. Through various outreach activities throughout the year, like NNO (National Night Out held annually in Aug) or our community Garage Sale (held in the spring) and various committees like Minneapolis Police Department's Community Crime Prevention/SAFE CCP/Safe activities, they help keep the neighbors informed and involved and keep our community active and aware. CCP/Safe also has a list of community resources for neighbors to draw from for crime prevention tips and updates, neighborhood watch programs, and a problem solving guide for neighborhood various nuisances such as barking dogs, boom cars, etc. Contact CCP/Safe Officer McDonough 612-673-2805 to find out who your nearest Block Club Leader is or find out how you can volunteer for your block.

Keeping it tidy in Minneapolis

Thanks for being a good neighbor!

There are many ordinances established for urban dweller to help maintain the condition of properties and the community. This is just a sample of some of the main conditions and ordinances the inspectors look for and for residents to be mindful of for your property in the City. Contact 311 or your neighborhood organization if you have questions about possible violations or if you need assistance.

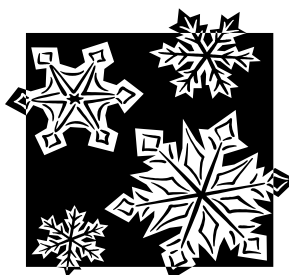

Spring/Summer Reminders:

Excess garbage, rubbish, tires and or unsightly debris.

Tall grass, weed, overhanging brush. Grass cannot obstruct public sidewalks or alley right of ways. Tall grass is considered anything over 6 inches, unsightly at 3-4.

Inoperable vehicle(s) Vehicles without current license plate tabs or that are obviously inoperable may not be parked on your property unless in a garage. Vehicle donations are accepted by: Cars for Courage: 612-520-0540 Trash Pickup in the Lind-Bohanon neighborhood: Wednesday or Thursday AM *Recycle every other Thursday

Fall/Winter Reminders: Snow Shoveling Rules

Don't shovel snow into streets

It's against the law to shovel snow into streets or alleys.

Shovel around garbage and recycling carts

If you don't shovel around your garbage carts and recycling bins, the City will do it for you and charge a fee. For information, go to the Solid Waste & Recycling web site.

Clear sidewalks after a snowfall

After a snowfall, snow and ice on sidewalks must be removed within:

- 24 hours for homes and duplexes
- Four daytime hours for apartment and commercial buildings.

Need to report a sidewalk that is not shoveled?

To report a sidewalk that has not been shoveled, call 311.

Need sidewalk-shoveling help? For a fee, community groups shovel snow for senior citizens and people with disabilities. Call (612) 673-3004 for a list of these groups.

Graffiti Removal

Solid Waste & Recycling has graffiti removal solutions available for neighborhood organizations and registered block clubs. Solid Waste & Recycling in cooperation with Public Works also has paint available for neighborhoods wanting to quickly cover graffiti on traffic signs and fire hydrants.

Please call the Graffiti Hotline to report all graffiti incidents. The City will guide you through the report and explain how to remove or paint over the graffiti. Read more graffiti information.

Graffiti Hotline

612-673-2090

This is for all graffiti damages that are not in progress. This phone line will be answered M-F 8:00 am to 4:30 p.m. except on City of Minneapolis holidays. Please leave a voice mail message outside these regular hours.
