Want to lend a hand so your neighborhood is prepared if tragedy strikes our neighborhood?

Do you know you're neighbors?

Have you considered being a block club leader to be able to help other neighbors by being an information point for some of your elderly or other neighbors not only for crime or if tragedy would strike the block you live on? If you'd like to consider becoming a block club leader just for your block, please attend an informational and training meeting on

Thursday, June 9th at the 4th Precinct

- Learn about what a Block club is and does
 - Learn how to be alert & watch out for each other before tragedy happens
- Call 911 when they see suspicious activity or crimes in progress.

How to get started?
